Detailed Colour / Pattern Descriptions

The colour code used for Registration purposes has been added to each colour description.

Please Note:

Eye colour descriptions have not been included in the coat colour descriptions, but are listed with the Standard of Points for each breed.

Here follows the registration codes for eye colours. These codes may be added to the end of a cat's breed + colour code. Do NOT use eye colour codes for usual registration. These codes are to be used only when they represent the unusual, e.g. odd eyed Van PER, blue eyed JBT. If unsure, contact the Cat Register.

- z - Deep clear blue.
- y - Deep clear orange to copper.
- x - One deep clear gold to copper and one deep clear blue.
- w - Green.
- v - Any shade of bluish green or greenish blue.
- u - Clear bright vivid blue.

COLOUR DESCRIPTIONS WITH THEIR CODES

SELF COLOURS

White

*Colour code: Blue eyed 01
Copper / gold eyed 02
Odd eyed 03
Green eyed 04*

Pure white.

Allowances: Young kittens may show a coloured patch on the head, from a few hairs to a patch. This should not be penalized at this time. This is a definite fault in an adult.

Faults: Any staining is undesirable in white coats.

Nose leather & pads: Pink

Black

Colour code: 05

Lustrous jet black, even in colour and solid to the roots.

Allowances: Ashiness in kittens.

Faults: Rustiness.

White hairs in coat.

Nose leather & pads: Black or dark brown

Blue

Colour code: 06

Light to medium blue; even in colour and solid to the roots.

Faults: Rustiness.

White hairs in coat.

Nose leather & pads: Blue or pinkish blue

Chocolate

Colour code: 07

Rich warm chocolate brown, even in colour and solid to the roots.

Faults: Cold tones in coat colour.

White hairs.

Nose leather & pads: Chocolate or cinnamon pink

Lilac

Colour code: 08

Pinkish grey, even in colour and solid to the roots.

Faults: Fawn tones in coat colour.

Nose leather & pads: Pinkish grey or faded lilac

Cinnamon

Colour code: 09

Warm cinnamon brown, even in colour and solid to the roots.

Faults: Cold tones in coat colour.

White hairs.

Nose leather & pads: Pink to cinnamon brown

Fawn

Colour code: 10

Warm rosy mushroom, even and solid to the roots. The pinker the better; colour too blue or too cold is a fault.

Faults: Blue or cold tones in coat colour.

White hairs.

Nose leather & pads: Pinkish fawn

Caramel Colour Descriptions

(Amended October 2013)

General: The effect of the Dm gene (Dilute Modifier) is to give a brownish cast to dilute coat colours. Some kittens become more caramel as they mature, while others will always only show a hint of caramel. All caramel coats should display a metallic sheen irrespective of their colour, but it may be less evident in kittens. Tabbies, in particular, show the metallic sheen to advantage, especially from paw to hock. Allow for light chin and solid coloured nose leather in tabby kittens and young tabby adults.

Caramel

Colour code: 11

Blue based: Dark brownish blue, even in colour and solid to the roots.

Lilac/fawn based: Warm brownish lilac, even in colour and solid to the roots.

Faults: White hairs.

Nose leather & pads: Purplish brown (blue based) or pinkish grey (lilac/fawn based).

Red

Colour code: 12

Deep rich red, even and solid to the roots and as free from tabby markings as possible. Fur on upper lip and chin to be the same colour as the coat.

Allowances: Freckles may appear on the nose leather, lips, eyelids, ears, and paws.

Slight freckling in adults and ghost tabby markings permissible.

Faults: Excessive tabby markings in coat.

Nose leather & pads: Deep pink

Cream

Colour code: 13

Pale to medium cream, cool toned cream with no hot tinges, even and solid to the roots and as free from tabby markings as possible.

Allowances: Freckles may appear on the nose leather, lips, eyelids, ears, and paws.

Slight freckling in adults and ghost tabby markings permissible.

Faults: Excessive tabby markings in coat.

Hot tones to coat colour.

Nose leather & pads: Pink

Apricot

Colour code: 14

Hot sandy cream with a soft metallic sheen, which becomes more noticeable with maturity. Even and solid to the roots and as free from tabby markings as possible.

Allowances: Freckles may appear on the nose leather, lips, eyelids, ears, and paws.

Slight freckling in adults and ghost tabby markings permissible.

Faults: Excessive tabby markings in coat.

Nose leather & pads: Pink

Tortoiseshell

Coat colour patched or mingled at random with red, cream or apricot. Any large areas of red, cream or apricot may show some barring. Varying shades of red, cream or apricot in patching permissible. Both colours of the coat to be well represented. Presence or absence of a blaze immaterial.

Black Tortoiseshell

Colour code: 15

Lustrous jet black patched or mingled at random with red.

Lilac/fawn based: Warm brownish lilac patched or mingled at random with varying shades of apricot

Nose leather & pads: Purplish brown and/or pink (blue based) or pinkish grey and/or pink (lilac/fawn based).

SHADED COLOURS

These colours are the result of the effect of the inhibitor gene on the self-colours which causes colour to be inhibited along the hair shaft leaving the root area white or silver. The action of the inhibitor gene is recognized in three degrees:

DEFINITIONS:

- Shell/Tipped: Highest grade of silver shading. Colour at tips of hairs only.
- Shaded: Medium grade of silver shading. Approximately 1/3 of hair shaft is coloured at tip end.
- Smoke: Lowest grade of silver shading. Majority of hair shaft is coloured from tip end.

Golden Colour Descriptions

The Wide Band genes produce goldens. All golden cats are Agouti (tabbies).

The base of the hairs are almost wholly golden with the tips of the hairs ranging from lightly tipped (chinchilla/shell) to heavier shading. This means that goldens will not show a pattern that is solid to the roots.

Goldens can be registered and shown as ticked, classic, mackerel and spotted tabbies. As the ticking pattern is not very noticeable in lightly shaded cats, ticked tabbies are often simply called shell or shaded goldens.

Black Chinchilla Golden

Colour & Shaded Code: 05ChGo

Undercoat pale honey to deep apricot. Chin, ear tufts, chest and under parts pale apricot. Head, back, flanks and tail any shade of gold, lightly tipped with black or seal brown to give a golden appearance. Face and legs lightly tipped with black or seal brown. The end of tail may be tipped with black or seal brown. Pad tufts to be gold.

The general tipping effect to be darker than that of a Chinchilla.

Barring on body, legs in adults to be deemed a fault. Disqualify for any eye colour other than green or blue green.

Nose leather: Brick red, outlined in seal brown or black

Lips & eye rims: Seal brown or black.

Pads: Seal brown or black.

Eye colour: green or blue green

Black Shaded Golden

Colour & Shaded Code: 05ShGo

Undercoat pale honey to deep apricot, with a mantle of black or seal brown shading on the head, ears, back, flanks and upper side of tail. Chin, ear tufts, chest and under parts pale apricot. Face and legs shaded with black or seal brown. The end of tail may be shaded with black or seal brown. Back of hind legs black from paw to hock.

The general tipping effect to be much darker than that of a Shaded Chinchilla.

Barring on body, legs in adults to be deemed a fault. Disqualify for any eye colour other than green or blue green

Nose leather: Brick red, outlined in seal brown or black

Lips & eye rims: Seal brown or black.

Pads: Seal brown or black.

Eye colour: Green or blue green

Blue Chinchilla Golden

Colour & Shaded Code: 06 ChGo

Chin, ear tufts, abdomen, insides of legs and under parts of tail any shade of ivory to pale honey. The face and legs lightly tipped with blue. Pad tufts to be gold.

The general tipping effect to be much lighter than that of a blue shaded golden.

Barring on body, legs in adults to be deemed a fault. Disqualify for any eye colour other than green or blue green.

Nose leather: Old rose, outlined in blue

Lips & eye rims: Blue or pinkish blue

Pads: Blue or pinkish blue

Eye colour: Green or blue green

Blue Shaded Golden

Colour & Shaded Code: 06 ShGo

Undercoat ivory to pale honey with a mantle of blue shading on the head, ears, back, flanks and upper side of tail. Chin, ear tufts, abdomen, insides of legs and under parts of tail any shade of ivory to pale honey.

The face and legs shaded with blue. Back of hind legs blue from paw to hock.

The effect is that of a much darker cat than the Blue Chinchilla golden

Barring on body, legs in adults to be deemed a fault.

Disqualify for any eye colour other than green or blue green.

Nose leather: Old rose, outlined in blue

Lips & eye rims: Blue or pinkish blue

Pads: Blue or pinkish blue

Eye colour: Green or blue green

NOTE: Any colour may be combined with gold. The undercoat to be some shade of pale honey to deep apricot. Chin, ear tufts, chest and under parts gold. Head, back, flanks and tail any shade of gold, tipped or shaded with the genetic colour to give a golden appearance. Face, legs and end of tail tipped or shaded with the genetic colour.

The undercoat of dilute colours will be a paler gold. The degree of tipping or shading should be as described above for chinchilla or shaded goldens.

Eye colour green or blue green.

Nose leather brick or deep pink outlined in the genetic colour.

Paw pads, eye rims, lips and paw pads as for the genetic colour

TABBIES

The tabby pattern is formed by a distinct dark tabby pattern superimposed over a ticked background of agouti hairs. The colour of the pattern should be the equivalent of one of the self, silver or tortoiseshell colours. The tip of the tail and gauntlets on the back of the hind feet are the largest areas that show the cat's true colour. The colour of the pattern should match on the head, body, legs and tail. A pattern that consists of a dark agouti pattern over a light agouti background is incorrect and will be penalised. Markings must show clear contrast with the agouti ground colour, but in lighter colours the contrast will be less apparent. Belly will be paler, unticked and with a double row of spots. The distribution of the markings in Tortoiseshell Tabbies is immaterial. In Silver Tabbies discolouration of the ground colour (tarnishing) is undesirable.

Silver and Golden Tabbies

The inhibitor gene (silver tabbies) and wide banding genes (goldens) result in a wide silver or golden base at the roots of the hair shaft and therefore the tabby pattern is at the tips of the hair. NOTE: silver and golden tabbies do not show a solid-to-the-roots pattern.

The Classic Tabby Pattern

Pattern Code: Tc

Markings are broad and clear, with no ticking in the pattern. Preferably, but not necessarily solid to the roots. In all silver tabbies the roots should be silver and in golden tabbies the roots are gold.

Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Barred with an "M" on the forehead. Bars or whorls on cheeks. Light coloured spectacles around eyes. Unbroken line running from the outer corners of the eyes. Spotted whisker pads. Paler chin. Scarab marking on head. Lines from scarab continue between ears and down back of neck to meet butterfly on shoulders.

Neck & chest: Necklaces distinct and unbroken. The more necklaces the better.

Body: Distinct dark stripe down centre of back with dark stripe on either side, separated by the agouti ground colour. Whorls on sides of body, each continuing in an unbroken ring. Belly spotted.

Legs: Evenly ringed, rings coming up high to meet body markings. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.

Tail: Broad rings. Tail ends in a dark tip.

Faults:

- White chin or any other white markings.
- Indistinct or incorrect markings.
- Light coloured tail tip.
- Blurred rings, broken necklaces or rings broken on top of the tail.

NOTE: The traditional Classic Pattern as described above is rarely seen today. The majority of cats described as Classic tabbies may have a slight to dramatically modified version of the description above; described as follows:

The Classic Blotched Tabby Pattern

Pattern Code: Tc

Neck & chest: Necklaces may be broken or unbroken

Body: A distinct pattern of large swirled patches and /or blotches. Whole or partial markings or rosettes on shoulders and rear quarters. The spine may show partial or distinct chaining. Chaining may be noted elsewhere on the body. Two or more shades may be visible in the pattern. Belly spotted

Legs: May have bars, spots and blotches. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet

Tail: Rings and small blotches. Tail ends in a dark tip.

NOTE:

- The patterns on Classic Blotched Tabbies may be random and unique and dissimilar on the two sides of the body.
- Clarity of pattern and distinct contrast between the ground colour and pattern is of utmost importance.
- The Pattern Code for the Classic Blotched tabby is the same as for the Classic Tabby: Tc

Mackerel Tabby Pattern

Pattern Code: Tm

Marking are narrower than those of the Classic Tabby, including leg and tail rings.

Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Barred with an "M" on the forehead. Bars or whorls on cheeks. Light coloured spectacles around eyes. Unbroken line running from the outer corners of the eyes. Spotted whisker pads. Paler chin. Scarab marking on head. Lines from scarab continue between ears and down back of neck to meet pattern on shoulders.

Neck & chest: Necklaces distinct and unbroken. The more necklaces the better.

Body: Narrow, unbroken dark centre spine line, with a broken line on either side, separated by the agouti ground colour. Narrow lines, which form the mackerel pattern, run vertically down the body. The lines should be as narrow and as numerous as possible. Belly spotted.

Legs: Evenly ringed, rings coming up high to meet body markings. Rings narrower and more numerous than Classic Tabby. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.

Tail: Rings, as narrow and as numerous as possible, complete or broken. Tail ends in a dark tip.

Faults:

- White chin or any other white markings.
- Indistinct or incorrect markings.
- Light coloured tail tip.
- Blurred lines, broken necklaces or rings broken on top of the tail.

Spotted Tabby Pattern

Pattern code: Ts

The spots must be clearly evident with no broken mackerel lines on sides of body. Leg and tail rings narrow.

Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Barred with an "M" on the forehead. Bars on cheeks. Light coloured spectacles around eyes. Unbroken line running from the outer corners of the eyes. Spotted whisker pads. Paler chin. Scarab marking on head. Lines from scarab continue between ears and down back of neck to break into spots on shoulders and along spine.

Neck & chest: Necklaces may or may not be present; broken or unbroken.

Body: Good, clear spotting essential. Spots may vary in size, but should be rounded and evenly distributed. Belly well spotted.

Legs: Legs may be barred and / or spotted. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.

Tail: Ringed. Tail ends in a dark tip.

Faults:

- White anywhere other than lips and lower jaw.
- Speckling of agouti hairs in spotting.
- Indistinct spots.
- Spots elongated, resembling broken stripes.
- Incorrect spotting pattern, including spots on one side of the body and broken mackerel stripes on the other.
- Spotting not solid to the roots, but slight paling at the base of the hair may occur.
- Solid spine line in adults.
- Kittens may show a rather solid spine line, but some evidence of breaking into spots is desirable

Ticked Tabby Pattern

Pattern Code: Tt

Body is ticked with face, head, legs and tail showing tabby markings. All stripes and necklaces to be as distinct as possible.

Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Barred with an "M" on the forehead. Bars on cheeks. Light coloured spectacles around eyes. Unbroken lines running from the outer corners of the eyes. Spotted whisker pads. Paler chin. Scarab marking on head.

Neck & chest: At least one necklace required, broken or unbroken.

Body: Body hair to be ticked with darker colour on pale ground, affording good contrast. Darker dorsal shading permitted. Under parts may show tabby markings.

Legs: Ringed. Rings narrower and more numerous than Classic Tabby. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.

Tail: Ringed. Tail ends in a dark tip.

Faults:

- When viewed from the top, to be free from noticeable spots or other markings.
- Evidence of spotting or lines on sides of body.
- Lack of tabby markings on head, legs and tail.

Marble Tabby Pattern

Pattern code: Tr

Head: Thumbprints on backs of ears. Head barred with an "M" on forehead. Dark pencillings to run from outside corners of the eyes. Light spectacles around eyes. At least one other unbroken line on cheeks. Lines on head to run on either side of scarab and down back of neck to break into pattern on shoulders.

Neck & chest: Necklaces may be broken or unbroken.

Body: A distinct pattern of large swirled patches and blotches or horizontal streaks. Rosettes may appear on shoulders and rear quarters. Three or more shades are desirable in the pattern. Contrast between pattern and ground colour must be extreme, giving distinct pattern and sharp edges. Virtually white undersides and belly desirable. Necklace/s may be broken or unbroken. Belly to be spotted.

Legs: Legs may be barred and / or spotted. Dark gauntlets on back of hind feet.

Tail: Ringed. Marbled and/ or spotted, ending in a dark tip.

Undesirable:

- Typical Classic pattern.

Silver Tabbies

Silver Tabbies are the equivalent of a standard coloured tabby with the addition of the inhibitor (silver) gene, which removes the colour from the roots of the hairs. Thus the roots should be silver or as white as possible, with the agouti ground areas showing contrasting bands of silver and colour at the tips of the hairs and in the patterned areas the colour should extend well down the hairs, but not to the roots. Tarnishing of the coat is a serious fault.

Nose leather, eye rims & pads: Bluish fawn and / or pink

Tabby Pattern

The tabby pattern is formed by markings of the solid pattern colour on a background of agouti hairs. The pattern may be ticked, mackerel, spotted or classic/marbled. The points markings should show vivid contrast with the background colour, but may be less contrasting in the dilute colours (Blue, Lilac, Fawn, Caramel, Cream and Apricot) and may be paler on the legs than on the other points. The colour of the markings on the points and body should match in tone. Tabbies in the dilute colours will be lighter in tone than the equivalent solid colour. The markings can take longer to develop in Reds, Creams and Apricots. The points do not merge with the body colour as they do in non-tabby patterns but the markings on the points should be darker than the markings on the body.

General Body Markings: The markings will depend upon the nature of the tabby pattern but will appear as a lighter shade of the points markings against the agouti background colour. The markings will lighten down the flanks to the under parts, which will be a paler shade of the background colour and may show spots. The Tonkinese expression results in a broad band of more solid colour over the top of the head, along the back and into the base of the tail that is more noticeable with maturity. There should be one or more broken, or unbroken, necklets on the neck/upper chest.

General Points Colour: As for solid pointed colours, matching colour essential, but varied tones acceptable.

General Head Markings: There should be a clearly defined "M" on the forehead, "spectacle" markings around the eyes, a ribbon running from the outer edge of the eye and spotted whisker pads. Ears are solid colour but show clear "thumb marks" which may be less apparent in dilute colours, and mottled in tortie tabbies. The nose leather may be pinkish outlined with colour that matches the paw pads or more solid in colour.

Eyes: Eye colour as for appropriate Solid Point colour. Rims dark or toning with points.

Nose leather: Conforming to recognized Standard for the particular colour of points, or pink, outlined with the appropriate solid colour.

Eyes, nose rim & lips: Edged with the appropriate colour.

Legs: Clearly defined broken stripes. Solid markings on the back of the hind legs. The leg markings may be paler than the other points.

Pads: Conforming to recognized Standard for appropriate solid colour.

Tail: Clearly defined broken rings.

SILVER SHELL/ SHADED POINTED

Selection for very pale tipping has resulted in very little tipping being visible on the legs, paws and face of chinchilla/shell/tipped silvers in all breeds. A chinchilla point or shaded point is a chinchilla or shaded silver with colour restricted to the points (back of the ears, mask, legs and tail).

Chinchilla pointed cats will not show colour on the legs and extremely little tipping to none on the masks. There will be no real contrast between the body and points colour in chinchilla pointed cats.

Shaded/ Chinchilla points may show variable degrees of tipping or shading in the hair shaft from cat to cat. Allowances should be made for distinct tabby markings on legs, mask and tail in short coated shaded pointed adults. Hocks, tufts between paw pads and tail tips will show more colour than the other points. More contrast between the body and the points will be noted in shaded points. Shading, if any, may have ghost tabby markings. and will have white roots, showing the inhibitor gene in action.

Points colour in kittens may take longer to develop. Shaded Pointed kittens may show quite distinct tabby markings on the body and the points. Allowances should be made for this.

The silver gene will give a cold tone to the colour of the tipping/shading on the chinchilla points and shaded points.

Eye Colour - A definite clear blue; deeper shades preferred.

Seal Chinchilla Point

Colour & Pointed Code: 05ChPt

Body: Body, chest and underparts white.

GOLDEN POINTED (Championship status 2023)

A chinchilla golden point or shaded golden point is a chinchilla golden or shaded golden with colour restricted to the points (back of the ears, mask, legs and tail). The wide banding and rufousing genes will give a warm rich tone to the colour of the tipping/shading on the points and the body colour; therefore, the body colour may appear to have a golden hue.

Points: The golden point may have points that range from showing none, to very light tipping in the chinchilla/tipped golden point to more heavily shaded tipping in the shaded golden points; over a delicate warm, rich golden undercoat. The deeper, richer gold undercoat is to be preferred. The gold undercoat in the dilute colours will be paler in colour compared to the gold undercoat of the seal golden point. In very lightly tipped chinchilla golden points, the mask may appear completely golden with barely any tipping and the tail might be gold with possibly just a coloured tip. In more heavily shaded cats, the mask, legs and tail may have tabby markings, especially in short coated breeds. Tufts between pads, hocks and tail tips will show more colour than the other points. A mature golden shaded point will have ears, mask and tail tipped/shaded with color and slight facial markings, especially under the eyes and on the nose over the gold undercoat.

Points colour on young cats will be much more subtle than in mature cats. The gold undercoat may take longer to develop fully. Shaded kittens may show quite distinct tabby markings on the body and the points. Allowances are to be made for this.

Body Colour: Body shading, if any, may show ghost tabby markings and the pale gold undercoat in the more heavily shaded cats; showing the wide banding and rufousing genes in action. Shading to tone with the points, but of a lighter colour.

Eye Colour - A definite clear blue; deeper shades preferred.

Patched with white / Bi- colours

White, in addition to another colour and / or pattern.

NOTE:

Bi-colours, Harlequins and Vans may be patched with any self-colour, but also with tabby, cameo, smoke, silvers, goldens or the pointed genes. Please see the SACC colour and patterns document for detailed descriptions of the colours and patterns that may be bred and shown with white.

Bi-colour: Patched Code: Bi

Patched with any one colour and white. Patches to be clear, even and well distributed; at least half the coat to be colour and at least 20% to be white. Face to be patched with colour and white. Excessive white hairs in self-coloured areas are undesirable.

Fault: Absence of white on face.

Harlequin: Patched Code: Ha

Patched with any one colour and white. Patches to be clear, even and well distributed; with more colour than that required in a Van, but less colour than that required in a Bi-colour. Excessive white hairs in self coloured areas is undesirable.

Van: Patched Code: Va

Patched with any one colour and white. A predominantly white coat, with colour restricted to 10% of the body, i.e. on head and tail, but patching elsewhere is acceptable. Excessive white hairs in self-coloured areas is undesirable.

Note: There is no minimum amount of colour. Patching is likely to appear on the head and tail first, then down the back and flanks and possibly the legs, but may be anywhere.

Tabby Bi-colours

Any tabby colour and white. See detailed colour descriptions from Page 11.

Note: Registration.

1. All Tabby Bi-colours/ Calicos must specify a tabby pattern i.e. classic or blotched tabby (Tc), mackerel tabby (Tm), spotted tabby (Ts), ticked tabby (Tt)
2. All Tabby Harlequins and Vans must use the unspecified Tabby Pattern code (Tb), including Calico tabbies

Calicos
